

You Can't Take It with You

Extra, extra! Read all about it! Feud brewing on the streets ol' New York! It'll get ugly, folks, when it's more than just egos that collide in the side-splitting comedy, "You Can't Take It with You"! We got Alice Sycamore, that's right, daughter of those ol' madcap Sycamores, bringing home none-other-than Tony Kirby, son of the business mogul, Ant'ony P. Kirby, and it don't look like either of 'em is too happy about it.

Boy, are the high-class Kirbys in for a surprise! There's gonna be tension—havoc—discord—maybe even an explosion or two in this here regular clash o' wills! And just you wait 'til the US Government gets involved! Yes, sir!

When you see what's in store for these two ill-matched families and their not-so-blissfully soon-to-be-wedded kids, you're gonna take away one little piece of advice for sure: you don't just marry the person—you marry the family!

Chestatee Ford brings this head-to-head to your Historic Holly Theatre September 2-4, 9-11, and 16-18. So if you could use a good laugh and an evening of fun, this show is for you!

The Kirbys will have a blast (literally!) with the kooky Sycamores, and you can get in on the action for just $20 for adults and $12 for students.

Friday and Saturday performances begin at 8p.m. and Sunday matinées at 2p.m.

Tickets are now available online at www.hollytheater.com or at the Holly box office.

Free parking is available at the UNG Student parking deck behind the Holly. Access to the free parking deck is from the second street on the left just past the Holly Theater.
