

T'was The Night Before A Christmas Carol

T'was the night before Christmas, and all through the Holly, the Dickens family is sleeping...but not everyone is jolly.

This holiday season, the Historic Holly Theatre presents "T'was The Night Before A Christmas Carol." It's Christmas Eve in the Dickens house, and the great writer, Charles Dickens, has promised his children that the family will act out his first ever Christmas play. But Dickens is struck with a dastardly case of writer's block. He enlists his British butler and Irish nanny to help construct the now timeless classic, "A Christmas Carol," for his family to perform on Christmas Day.

Veteran Holly performer Carla Selden returns to the theater to direct the show for the holidays! Join us this December as we bring in the Christmas season with a family-fun adventure and a whole lot of laughs!

The festivities run December 2-4, 9-11, and 16-18. Friday and Saturday shows at 8 p.m. and Sunday matinees at 2 p.m.

Tickets are $20 for adults and $12 for students. Tickets are available at the box office and at www.hollytheater.com.

Free parking is available at the UNG Student parking deck behind the Holly. Access to the free parking deck is from the second street on the left just past the Holly Theater.
